5. Move-out Inspections. A move-out inspection will be conducted by the HASNOK within three (3) business days of the date of termination of occupancy. 1. Re-examination Schedule. The Participant's "reexamination schedule" shall coincide with the date of the effective date of initial occupancy. The re-examination process shall commence at least 2 months prior to the effective date to allow sufficient time for HASNOK staff to verify all information provided by the Participant(s). The Participant will be notified of the need to re-certify and set a date/time for the re-certification. - 3. Effective Date of Adjustment. Adjustments in monthly payments are to be made effective on the first day of the month following the income change, provided that no downward monthly payment adjustments are to be processed until the alleged changes in circumstance have been substantiated.

C. Verification and Documentation of Reexamination Data. To assure that the data upon which determinations as to eligibility for continued occupancy and changes in required monthly payments are made (either by scheduled re-examination or an interim re-examination) are complete and accurate, the information submitted by the Participant household shall be verified. Verification procedures are the same as those described in Section 4(C), above.

D. Action Required Following Reexamination. Within 30 days of receiving the Personal Declaration and all required supporting documentation, the HASNOK shall notify the family in writing of: (1) any change to be made in the Participant's rent payment and the effective date thereof; (2) any changes to the HASNOK policy and the effective date thereof; and/or (3) any instances of misrepresentation or non-compliance with the Program Policy, HUD regulations or housing policy and of any corrective or disciplinary action which is to be taken.

E. Failure to Comply With Annual Reexamination. If the Participant fails to respond to the letter requesting re-certification information, a written notice, by certified mail with return receipt requested, will be mailed with a deadline for submission of information. If the Participant fails to provide the information requested by the due date, it shall be deemed a violation of this Policy, which may result in termination. In addition, Participant(s) who fail to report upward changes in income may be liable for additional amounts due to the HASNOK. Participant(s) who fail to report downward changes in income within a reasonable time period shall not be entitled to any retroactive adjustment of rent.

SECTION 10

TRANSFERS

A. Involuntary Transfers. The HASNOK may require a Participant to transfer to another unit in order to allow for substantial rehabilitation of the unit being vacated or to correct overcrowded, unsafe, or unsanitary living conditions. The Participant, as a condition of participation in the Program, consents to any such involuntary transfer.

B. Voluntary Transfers. The HASNOK may approve a voluntary transfer to another Program unit, provided that the Participant has complied with all Program requirements (including the payment of rent), the unit being vacated is clean, and all resident damages (excluding normal wear and tear) are repaired.

D. Limitations. Vacant units must be offered to any and all eligible applicant(s) on the waiting list for the Program before a transfer request from a participant can be approved.

TERMINATION OF OCCUPANCY

A. Termination of Occupancy by the Participant. The Participant may terminate the Agreement, provided that thirty (30) days written notice is given in writing to the HASNOK. The HASNOK does not waive any claim to additional payments due for accrued rent and/or damages to the unit by accepting such notice.

B. Procedures Upon Termination of Occupancy by Participant. Participant(s) shall provide the HASNOK at least thirty (30) days written notice prior to moving out of their assigned unit, unless such notice requirement is waived in writing by the HASNOK. A move-out inspection shall be conducted within three (3) days of termination of occupancy. Participant(s) who move out of their assigned unit without conveying proper notice to the HASNOK will be considered to have abandoned the premises and may be responsible for damages sustained by the unit while vacant and/or any legal fees or costs incurred by the HASNOK to regain possession of the unit.

  - a. The date of the notice;
  - b. The date the monthly payment was due; and Director shall schedule a grievance hearing with the Lessee(s) within ten (10) days. At the Grievance Hearing, the Lessee(s) can present evidence and testimony to the Executive Director that explains why the Lease should not be terminated. Following the hearing, the Executive Director shall decide whether the Lease should be terminated or not. If the Executive Director decides to terminate the Lease, Lessee(s) shall vacate the unit by the date indicated in the Notice of Termination.

4. Commencement of Eviction. If the Lessee(s) fails to submit a Grievance Letter and does not vacate the unit by the date indicated in the Notice of Termination, if the Lessee(s) fail to submit an Appeal Letter after an unfavorable decision by the Executive Director in regards to the Grievance Hearing and does not vacate the unit by the date indicated in the Notice of Termination after receipt of the Grievance decision, or if the Lessee(s) does not vacate the unit by the date indicated in the Notice of Termination after receipt of the Board's Appeal Decision, the HASNOK shall commence termination and eviction procedures in a court of competent jurisdiction. The District Court of the Seminole Nation and/or such other tribal court as may hereinafter be established shall be considered courts of competent jurisdiction for purposes of enforcement of this Policy.

E. Termination for reasons other than non-payment of rent. In the event of non-compliance with any of the provisions set forth in this Policy, other than for non-payment of rent, the HASNOK may terminate the Participant's participation in the Program, according to the following procedure:

Following the hearing, the Board of Commissioners shall decide whether to uphold the decision of the Executive Director or not. Lessee(s) shall be informed of the Board of Commissioners' decision within 24 hours following the Appeal Hearing. The decision of the Board of Commissioners is final. If the Board of Commissioners decides to uphold the decision of the Executive Director, Lessee(s) shall vacate the unit by the date indicated in the Notice of Termination.
- c. If the Lessee(s) fails to submit a Grievance Letter and does not vacate the unit by the date indicated in the Notice of Termination, if the Lessee(s) fail to submit an Appeal Letter after an unfavorable decision by the Executive Director in regards to the Grievance Hearing and does not vacate the unit by the date indicated in the Notice of Termination after receipt of the Grievance decision, or if the Lessee(s) does not vacate the unit by the date indicated in the Notice of Termination after receipt of the Board's Appeal Decision, the HASNOK shall commence termination and eviction procedures in a court of competent jurisdiction.

Participant(s) whose conduct constitutes fraud or presents an imminent threat to the health, safety and/or welfare of the project community shall not be entitled to the due process standards set forth in this section. Instead, the HASNOK shall immediately commence termination and eviction procedures in a court of competent jurisdiction.
